

Lindy Remigino Distinguished Service Award for Outdoor Track & Field

Lindy Remigino was a Connecticut track and field icon. He was a Hartford Public High School champion who ran for Manhattan College, and then went on to win 2 Olympic gold Medals at the 1952 Helsinki Olympics in the 100 meters and 4x100-meter relay. Following the Olympics, he returned to Hartford to teach and coach at his alma mater. He coached teams to 31 state championships and many of his athletes were individual state champions and All-Americans. His life was devoted to track and field not only as a coach and mentor but also as a Track & Field Official and Meet Director. This award will recognize an individual, group, or organization which exemplifies the commitment, dedication, and longtime commitment to Outdoor Track & Field in Connecticut that Lindy Remigino exemplified.
